AWARD

Community Involvement

I know that there are many of our member facilities that serve the community in many ways and this is a great time to market yourself and the facility. The “Community Involvement Award” is presented to a group or organization (i.e., a Woman’s Group, High School, Church Organization, etc.) that has provided ongoing, outstanding support to the Activity Department of a Long Term Care Facility.

The Required Criteria:

- The group or organization must have contributed significantly to the facility for 2 years.
- Two Letters of recommendation must be sent, one of which must be from the facility’s Administrator or Resident Council and the other from the Activity Director.

Some of the things you need to ask yourself when submitting this award are, Does My Facility HOST:

- Church Groups
- Civic Organizations
- Community Advisory Boards
- Hospice
- Nursing Schools for Training Purposes
- Outreach Programs
- Parish Nurses
- Public Meetings
- Scouts Groups

These community leaders can be great spokes persons for your facility. All of these services would qualify you and your facility for this special award.
