

Florida Health Care Activity Coordinators Association Leaders Program

Program Mission Statement

The FHCACA Leaders Program seeks to identify, develop, train current and future participants in the Association's governing structure and assisting them will improve their personal and professional leadership skills.

Application and Selection Process

Applicants may be nominated by any current FHCACA member or may self-nominate. Completed applications are to be mailed to me no later than November 15, 2016. Nominees must have an active FHCACA membership. The applicant is required to have the support/permission of his/her employer and the local District to participate in the program.

The selection committee will choose delegates and new delegates will be notified by December 8, 2016.

Schedule (Please note that there will be three books that you will need to read and there will be assignments tied to each book. Books listed below)

January 19, 2017 – Florida Leaders meeting at 7:00 PM - The Rosen Plaza - Orlando
Selected reading deadline for “Our Iceberg is Melting” by John Kotter

April 6, 2017- Florida Leaders meeting at 7:00 PM - The Rosen Plaza - Orlando Selected reading deadline for “The Energy Bus, by Jon Gordon

June 8, 2017- Florida Leaders meeting at 7:00 PM - The Rosen Plaza - Orlando Selected reading deadline for “The No Complaining Rule: Positive Ways to deal with negativity at work”, Jon Gordon

July 18, 2017 – Conference- The Rosen Plaza Orlando-Graduation/Recognition at the annual awards Banquet Tuesday Night.

Program participants are expected to participate in all meetings; however if one meeting is missed, the participant will be dropped from the program. You will be allowed to reapply the following year.

Graduates are not assured of a leadership role in FHCACA's governing structure. Conversely, members who do not participate in the FHCACA Leaders Program are not excluded from holding a leadership role. It is anticipated however, that this program will serve as training for future leaders.
